

Bevelled Sub-Frame For a Splayed Reveal

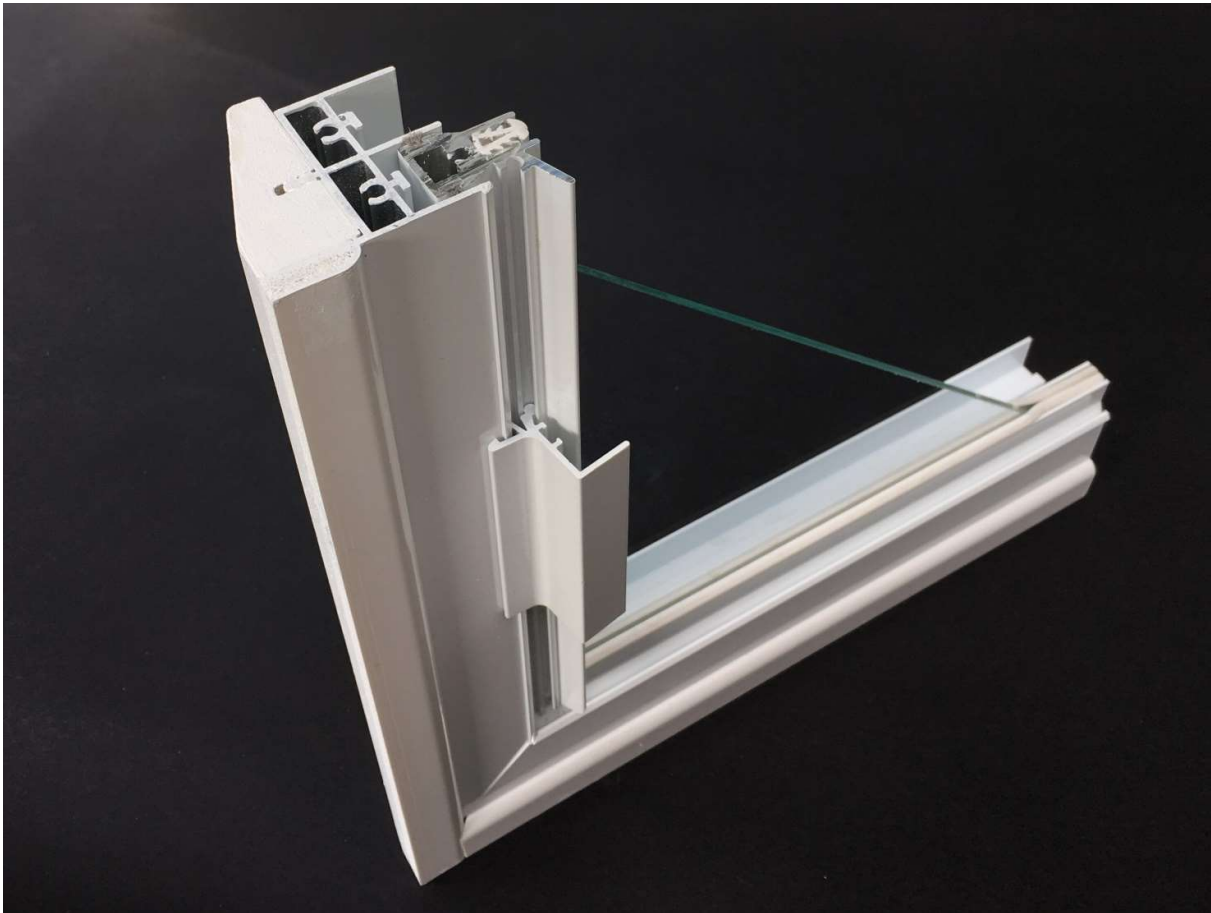

Image shows a typical 45mm deep (front to back) timber sub-frame with bevelled angle to fit a splayed (tapered) reveal.

The width of the timber will vary subject to angle specified.

This same principle applies to a 62mm deep or special Timber sub-frame.

(Corner section image is of a Horizontal slider, but represents the bevel principle on all systems)