

Square Bay Window 90° Corner to Timber Sub-Frame

Image shows a typical frame construction for an Square or Box Bay.

Units wider at the back to create the required Angle

Image shows a typical classic horizontal slider corner section.

Due to the likely out of square nature of the primary window, achieving a precise join in the systems may not be possible any gaps will be covered by the edging trim.