

Face Fixing

Attaching the unit directly into and against the face of the primary window frame

Reveal Fixing

Attaching the unit into the side walls of the reveal (90° to the glass)
Generally, to increase the air-gap between the secondary and primary glass or if there is insufficient frame to attach to.

