

Gaskets For Glazing Panels

Typical glazing panel section

The gasket is a rubber seal holding the glass into the panel section. With white, cream or light colour units, a white gasket is supplied as standard. A Black Gasket can be selected on request or if better suited to a darker colour frame section.

Images are of a Classic Horizontal Slider (white) & A Classic Lift-Out (black)